Admission Criteria/Conditions

Complete application files are reviewed and a decision made by the Department Selection Board from each academic college.

Admission decisions are based on:

- GPR on Texas A&M University coursework;
- GPR on coursework since leaving Texas A&M University;
- desired major; and
- information presented in the application.

Transcripts from institutions attended since the last enrollment at Texas A&M University are required as follows:

2014 Spring Semester – Need transcripts through 2013 Summer Semester.

2014 Summer Semester – Need transcripts through 2013 Fall Semester.

2014 Fall Semester – Need transcripts through 2013 Fall Semester if applying before June 1.

2014 Fall Semester – Need transcripts through 2014 Spring Semester if applying after June 1.

Note: a 2.0 GPR on coursework in progress during the semester (excluding summer terms) immediately prior to enrollment at Texas A&M University is a condition of admission.

Additional Information

- Grades for all transferable courses are used in the computation of the GPR.

This includes :

* Failing grades, repeated courses, WF, Incomplete, etc.

* Grades reported as Incomplete are computed as Fs.

* Plus and minus grade designations are not used; C+ is computed as a C, B+ is computed as a B, etc.

- Credit by examination courses which are transcribed from other colleges or universities may be transferred if sequential coursework with credit is also indicated. If there is evidence that the credit by examination courses are part of the student's program of study at that institution, credit will be awarded for those courses that meet the transfer guidelines.
- A minimum of 36 semester hours of 300 and/or 400 level coursework, with a minimum of 12 of the course hours in the major, MUST be completed in residence at Texas A&M University to qualify for a Baccalaureate degree.
